

CITY HONORS POLICE DEPARTMENT RESERVE UNIT

The Portage Police Department Reserve Unit was recognized at Tuesday's City Council meeting for their countless hours of service and dedication to Portage.

There are currently 9 active members in the unit who recently put in over 100 volunteer hours working the Independence Day parade and festival. Reserve members Bob Anderson, center left, and Kevin Stewart, center right, received the recognition from Mayor Sue Lynch and members of the City Council.

The reserve unit was created in 1992 and assists the city and police department in everything from traffic control at accident scenes to assisting local events.

Current members are:

Capt. Chris Segard

Sgt. Gil Spisak

Sgt. Bob Anderson

Officer Doug Murfitt

Officer Arzell Hathorne Jr.

Officer Ryan Bailey

Officer Darrin Robinson

Officer Kevin Stewart

Officer Javier Palacios.

Thank you, gentlemen, for everything you do.

And, if you are interested in becoming a member of the reserve unit, please contact the Portage Police Department at 219-762-3122.
